

PMJ Foundation

BOOK PUBLISHING APPLICATION

CONTEST DEADLINE: June 1, 2018

Past and present participants of the PMJ Foundation's Career Awareness Project (CAP) are invited to submit personal stories that have the opportunity to be published in a book! This application must be attached to your personal story and postmarked by June 1, 2018

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

_____

SCHOOL ATTENDING: _____

CURRENT GRADE (2017-18): _____ TEACHER: _____

The personal story will contain the following information:

- 1) All personal stories must be 500-1,000 words. Come up with your own creative title. Please submit with a personal photo or a drawing that reflects who you are.
- 2) Please tell us about YOU – for instance, tell us about your life at home, in school, experiences you have had that influence who you are. What were your goals before CAP?
- 3) How has CAP helped you? Is your attendance better, your grades?
- 4) Last, have your long-term goals changed because of CAP and what are they now?

All stories will be reviewed by a third party. They will not be returned to the entrant and become the property of the PMJ Foundation. Not all stories will be selected for publication. This is all about you and we cannot wait to hear about our participants. CAP is a unique program and you are a unique YOU! Not all stories will be chosen for publication though the foundation reserves the right to use submitted stories to appear on its' website for fundraising purposes.

Winners will be selected and notified by mid June and announced on our website and local publications.

Parents: By signing below, you agree to allow your child to write a personal story with the understanding PMJ Foundation will possibly publish your child's story in a book. Stories not chosen for publication are the property of the PMJ Foundation and may be used in future fundraising as well as used on the PMJ Foundation website.
